

Moving Forward on the Approved Alignment

First Priority West Shore

The Regional Growth Strategy, Transit Future plan and other plans have identified the connection to the West Shore as the top rapid transit priority. Following a detailed analysis of many alignment options, the Douglas Street (with possible couplet variations) – Galloping Goose/Trans-Canada Highway – Island Highway alignment was selected. The project is now moving forward with the technical details of assessing rapid transit options within that alignment.

